Exponent Philanthropy Welcomes New Board Members

October 2023 — This month, the nation’s largest network in philanthropy announced the election of their 2023-2024 board of directors. “Exponent Philanthropy is thankful for the support of our board’s leadership in the past and present. We’re excited for the new leadership team to work in partnership with our staff in the months and year ahead,” says CEO Paul D. Daugherty.

Exponent Philanthropy welcomed the newly elected board officers at their annual meeting, which took place in Baltimore, Maryland this year. They include Chair Dr. Rahsaan Harris (Harris Pickney Fund); Vice-Chair Nina Cohen (JD, George & Mary Kremer Foundation); Secretary Courtney Rice (Richmond Memorial Health Foundation); Treasurer Rich Ribeiro (The Turrell Fund); and Member-at-Large Debra Moniz (Cedar Tree Foundation).

Serving a critical role in the national philanthropic community, Exponent Philanthropy delivers high-quality membership services and leadership development to grantmakers with few or no staff who are uniquely positioned to embrace catalytic philanthropy in their efforts to have a real impact.

Exponent Philanthropy welcomed Dr. Toya Graham (Carolyn W. & Charles T. Beird Family Foundation) to the board and renewed the terms for board members Debra Moniz (Cedar Tree Foundation) and Rich Ribeiro (The Turrell Fund). They join current officers Taylor Gray (Countess Moira Charitable Foundation); Diana Bucco (The Buhl Foundation), Angela Hult (Kuni Foundation); Jennifer Oertel (Bodman Law Firm); Jenna Wachtmann (The Ball Brothers Foundation); Eliot Green (Eliot P. Green Law Firm); and Sandra Swirski (Integer).
