Exponent Philanthropy Welcomes Katy Moore as New Senior Director of Advancement

Washington, DC — March 6, 2024 — Today, Exponent Philanthropy announced the appointment of Katy Moore as its new senior director of advancement. Moore brings over two decades of experience helping grantmaking organizations and individual philanthropists increase their impact at the local, state, regional, and national levels.

“We are thrilled to welcome Katy Moore to the team,” said Exponent Philanthropy CEO Paul D. Daugherty. “Katy’s depth of experience in philanthropy makes her the perfect choice to lead Exponent’s development strategy and grow our capacity to better support our national membership network focused on transforming communities through informed giving.”

Most recently, Moore was the founding CEO of the Virginia Funders Network, a new state-wide membership association serving funders across the Commonwealth of Virginia. For more than a decade, Moore served in a variety of roles with the Washington Regional Association of Grantmakers (WRAG), during which she and the team transformed the organization into one of the greater Washington region’s leading social sector voices.

“I’m delighted to join Exponent Philanthropy and I look forward to drawing on my years of experience working with philanthropists and philanthropy serving organizations to advance Exponent’s mission and support the work of its 1,600 lean funder members,” said Moore.

Moore started her career at the Fayetteville Arkansas Community Foundation before moving to Washington, DC to lead the Council on Foundation’s National Standards for U.S. Community Foundations Initiative—the philanthropic field’s first-ever attempt to self-regulate and establish standards of practice.

About Exponent Philanthropy:

Exponent Philanthropy is the country’s largest association of funders, nearly 1,600 strong, and the only one dedicated to private and public grantmaking foundations with few or no staff, philanthropic families, and individual donors. Its vibrant network has in common lean operations and a style of philanthropy motivated by personal passion, community needs, and a strong desire for better outcomes. Members connect with experts and peers in the field through high-quality programs, resources, and discussions designed specifically for foundations with few or no staff, philanthropic families, and individual donors.
